

NEWSLETTER FEBRUARY 2005

Vol 1 Edition 9

Hello again from Wheel of Light into the new year! I hope all of you had a wonderful crossing into the new energies and are feeling positive about your year ahead. From my own experience, this year already feels challenging. It feels like a time where we are challenged to review how we have operated in the past and to make some changes towards achieving our true heart based goals. So if you are wondering why things have not been flowing, perhaps you are being asked to have a good look at what you are doing!!! Good luck in your deliberations. I have included in this issue some techniques to help.

Wheel of Light at Gasworks Park Festival

Sunday February 27 sees Wheel of Light with a strong presence at the Gasworks Park "A Taste for Living" Festival. Many of our students are assisting with reiki and energy healings, crystal healings and tarot readings. All money raised goes to charity and is for the South-Port Community Centre. I do hope you will pop by and say hello. It should be a great day and there is plenty of food and wine available, provided by local vendors. Please find attached a copy of the flyer from the Festival and a map as a guide to where we will be. On the map we are known as "New Age Stalls"!

Reflection and Change for 2005

It seems to me that we are all being challenged to review our goals and modus operandi in 2005. If we have been working in a job you are not happy with, if you have to generate your own work and it feels like clients are not coming easily, if your relationship has not been flowing, we are being asked to look at why this is the case. The energy in this year seems to be one of reflection and review and it is very important to use the signals from the universe as a guide to whether we are working "in the flow". Wherever things seem to be a struggle is a clue to what needs to be looked at. We are being asked to work more with universal guidance and to find the things in our life that make our hearts sing! Rather than being upset or angry when things are not working easily for us, have a look at WHY things are not working. What are you not doing? What are you avoiding? What makes you unhappy and what makes you happy?

If you meditate on these issues, or just sit and focus on them, the universe and your guides will provide you with clear understandings. If these are not forthcoming, think about undertaking some healing or counselling, or just talk with a friend who has some understanding or universal flow. Have your astrological chart read or your numerological chart. All these processes will help to make things clearer. Use the universal energy to help you find your path – a path of flow and ease.

We have both our calendar new year and the move into the Chinese Year of the Rooster to assist us at this time, so please use the energy that is available to you.

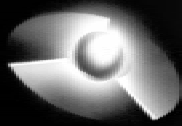

This is a call to find your heart's goals, rather than those dictated to us by our heads. By the way, I do say "us" and "we" as I am also being challenged with the same issues. I have also found a huge amount of universal supportive energy which has given me significant revelations of my own. So please don't feel that you are alone in perhaps feeling as if things are tough at the moment! Just understand it is the way we are being prodded to review what we are doing. Good luck in your deliberations!

Course Schedule Feb – July 2005

It has been an interesting start to the year in that everyone who is interested in attending courses seems to have been very busy and many of you are asking for courses to commence later than I had scheduled. I have other commitments as well at present so this works in well for me. Funny how the universe works isn't it!! Well no, I guess we all know that the universe has things perfectly under control. So please take note of the information for the courses you are interested in and please register your interest with me by phone or email.

Introducing Sunday Practice Days!

I am now going to offer practice days one Sunday per month. These will occur on the last Sunday of each month, commencing Sunday 27 March. They will start at 10.30 am and go through until 5ish. The day will consist of an opening and meditation, discussion and debrief, general question and discussion time and then the chance to practice healings, tarot readings, any form of divination such as pendulum, flower readings, use of crystals, aura soma, reiki and seichem and anything else you would like to practice that I know anything about. These days will be open to anyone who has taken a minimum of one course with wheel of light. The cost is $30 for the day and bring a plate to share. The venue will be at 305 Moray Street, South Melbourne. You must book a place for this each time, so call me on the mobile – 0417 593 193 prior. I look forward to these being valuable and informative days. And, of course, fun!!

PLEASE NOTE THE FOLLOWING INFORMATION

CHANNELLING FROM SPIRIT

"This is a great time of understanding. The energies available to you are one of self understanding. With all of the pain and horror in the world at this time, you have a personal opportunity to move forward with love and with positive energy. This is the time to truly find your path. This is the time to review how you have been working and whether it has been supportive of you or not. The Universe offers to you a time of reflection and review and this chance is best taken now while the energies are working for this goal. Do not think that we withdraw supportive energy – we would never do that. But there are times when some things are easier than others and this particular time is for self review. We are offering you the chance to work in the light, to work in love and to work in peace. It is imperative at this time on the Earth that you all look at what you are doing individually as this is the way to change things on the planet. It is not that you are hopeless, it is that you have hope. It is not that you are powerless, you have power. It is not that you are without love or light – those things are in abundance at all times for you to tap into. All you must do is sit and ask for the power of love and light and hope to come to you and it will. You will feel the energy of the Universe lift you up in joy and in laughter to help you find the way. Think on this – think on that you can be lifted up by us – sit on our shoulder, if you will – and as you do, you will see a farther horizon than that which has yet been available to you. You are all capable of great things. Whether it is an act of kindness to a neighbour, or whether it is a global role, you all have the chance to make a difference on this planet and you are being asked to find a way to do this, while filling your hearts with joy. Do you think that your journey on this planet has to be hard? No, it does not, if you will only ask for our help and allow yourself to be picked up and carried a part of the way. Now is the time to ask and feel our energies as we carry you. This is the time for joy in your heart so please, please, ask for it to be filled. Look at what is causing you pain and change or jettison it now. Take what fills your heart with love and joy, and ask for more of this. If the changes you make in your life a just a little uncomfortable, know that the end result is one of peace. Peace in your heart and peace in your soul. Use this time wisely and well for it will throw you further along your path and make the path feel like silk rather than quicksand. This is the time and we love you and honour your ability to move with change and to make a difference. All love from us and the universe. All joy and all peace. For healing is now - use the energy.

I wish you much love, support and success at this time of review and change and offer myself as a shoulder, should you need to talk. I know myself, that this can be a challenging process, so if I can help, please be in touch"

Much love and light

Jenny
